In determining eligibility for an Emergency Financial Aid Grant, the campus uses the US Department of Education's calculation of Expected Family Contribution (EFC), which takes into account factors such as household income, numbers of dependents with the household, expenses required for program completion, cost of living, and other financial factors. Students who are eligible for U.S. Title IV benefits that are active or on leave of absence with a degree or diploma program as of Friday, March 13, 2020 will be eligible to receive a grant.
